Public Economics, Applied Microeconomics

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

“Disability Employment Grants and the demand for disabled workers”
(with Sun Go)

We analyze the impact of disability employment grants on the demand for disabled workers using the data from Employment Development Institute’s Survey on Employment Status of the Disabled in Business.

“The Effect of Local Currencies on Local Shopping Behaviors: Evidence from the Korean Transportation Survey” (with Sun Go)

We used the Korean Transportation Survey to determine whether the implementation of local currencies changes residents’ local shopping behaviors. The results of the difference-in-differences estimation show that the introduction of local currencies moderately decreases the time residents spend walking, taking shuttles, and taking buses to shop.
